Young People in Sport Program

The Young People in Sport (YPIS) program aims to assist young athletes living in the Bundaberg Regional Council area by providing financial support with the cost of representing Queensland at a National Sporting competition or representing Australia at an International Sporting competition.

Before you begin

You (the local sporting organisation) will require certain information to complete the application. To assist this process you will need the following documentation:

- Evidence that the applicant has been selected as a Queensland or Australian representative (Letter from the sanctioning sporting body).
- Athletes proof of age

Please confirm that you have read and understood the Young People in Sport Program Guidelines *

☐ Yes

If you have not read the guidelines, please read them before commencing this application. Young People in Sport Program Guidelines here

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply, organisations are required to verify the following: *

- ☐ The athlete is a member of the local sporting organisation.
- ☐ The athlete is under the age of 18 years at the date the competition commences.
- ☐ The athlete resides within the Bundaberg Regional Council boundaries.
- ☐ The athlete has been selected to represent Queensland at a National Sporting competition or Australia at an International Sporting competition.

At least 4 choices must be selected.

Organisations are required to meet all these to be considered eligible.

Ineligibility

Organisations who have received funding through Council's Financial Assistance Programs which have not been satisfactorily acquitted will not be eligible and/or the athlete has received a Young People in Sport grant in the previous financial year.
